

False Imprisonment

We recently, with the help of counsel, secured an acquittal on two counts of false imprisonment against Mr C.

The defence was that the alleged youth victims were in fact emissaries for a drug dealer and that they were delivering threats on his behalf.

